

Overview: Facilitative Leadership Evaluation – Department of Education

During this three-day workshop, participants learn the key skills, tools and mindset to become an effective Facilitative Leader. Participants learn to:

- Develop practical skills and tools for tapping the creativity, experience and commitment of the people with whom they work.
- Provide a forum to explore their challenges and aspirations as a leader.

Department of Education: Facilitative Leadership
June 19-21, 2001
Chicago, IL

Course Evaluation:

- What was your overall evaluation of workshop
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....5.0
- To what degree were the objectives of the workshop accomplished
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely useful).....4.8

Instructor evaluation:

- How would you describe the instructor's knowledge of the subject matter?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extensive).....4.8
- How did you find the instructor's delivery style?
(1-5 scale. 5 = Extremely Effective).....4.7

General Feedback:

- "This workshop showed the group different ways to interchange in a working group and obtain their goals."
- "Learn how to better work and come to an agreement with your co-workers to determine just what your purpose and goals are in the department."
- "It was only 3 days, it should have been more and more people should have been able to take the course."
- "This training gives you the tools to be a facilitative leader, presents team concepts in a fresh, practical, and beneficial way."